Marathon, Texas, May 11.—Troops that went into Mexico last night, with them three bandits captured by the employees of the Porto Rico Te-Biquillas mine company to guide the column. The camp of the bandits is supposed about twelve hours inland. Coast artillery has been ordered to guard the communication line.

REFINERIES HAVE CONTRACTS AHEAD

Shamrock, Okla., May 11.—The refineries of Oklahoma have contracts ahead for many months for their entire production if they can get the crude oil on which to run, according to a representative of a well known independent refinery who has been to the Shamrock field, this week, looking for additional crude. His plan, he said, has orders ahead at the present time for nine months.

In regard to the payment of premiums for crude, the custom is still being followed by the majority of the independent companies in particular, according to this Shamrock visitor, and the customary premium at the present time is 50 cents a barrel, or a total of $2.65 a barrel for crude oil. He believes the present outlook for the refining plants was never better.
